

CALL FOR VOLUNTEERS

Do you have a passion for writing? Are you interested in Volunteering? Are you in need of professional development hours for ProDev? If so, the Association is looking for a volunteer to sit on the Keystone Professional Committee.

KEYSTONE PROFESSIONAL COMMITTEE

The Keystone Professional Committee is responsible for communications to Association members and the release of information to the public by such means as the publication of The Keystone Professional.

General Duties and Responsibilities:

- Facilitate the release of information to the public by publishing the Association's quarterly magazine as a source of information for the membership and general public.
- Solicit and develop articles on topics of interest to the membership for publication.
- Liaise with other Association committees such as the Awards Committee, Continuing Competency Committee, Committee for Increasing the Participation of Women in Engineering, etc. or a task group which will provide information of specific or general benefit to the membership.

Specific Skills and Qualifications

- Professional engineer specializing one of the following areas: civil engineering, electrical engineering, or computer engineering
- Interest in current issues relating to engineering and geoscience
- Writing experience and detail-oriented

Time Commitment:

The committee meets face to face approximately 8 times a year with the meetings being over the lunch hour. Teleconferencing for meetings is also available. Committee members also need to be available to commit to 1-2 hours of remote time per quarterly issue for writing and reviewing articles for The Keystone Professional.

How to Apply:

If you are interested in joining the Keystone Professional Committee please send your current resumé to Diana Vander Aa at Volunteer@EngGeoMB.ca