

DRAFTING TECHNOLOGIST

Term: Full-Time, Permanent
Hours: Monday – Friday, Flexible Start Time
Location: Office Located at 120 Terracon Place, Winnipeg MB

At Tria Consulting Ltd., we specialize in structural engineering and precast design. From concept to completion, by combining technical expertise with innovative solutions we strive to create structures that exceed our clients' expectations. Tria Consulting Ltd. provides clients with the highest level of professional engineering and design services on a wide range of construction projects. Whether it's designing structural systems, custom precast, or offering specialized engineering services, we leverage our expertise and innovation to deliver superior results, with a strong focus on the quality, efficiency, and sustainability.

Our team of experienced engineers, designers, drafters, and business development personnel are committed to providing the right solution to meet the unique needs of each client. Tria Consulting Ltd. services general contractors, design-build contractors, developers, architects, engineers, and homeowners offering a wide variety of commercial, residential, agricultural, manufacturing, and industrial building services. Our commitment to professionalism, technical excellence and reliability sets us apart as a trusted partner in the construction industry.

Tria Consulting Ltd. is actively seeking to hire a Drafting Technologist to join our team.

Responsibilities

- Creating and modifying structural and building drawings for commercial, residential, manufacturing and agricultural projects using drafting software (Revit, AutoCAD, etc.)
- Detailing of precast construction erection and shop drawings
- Preparing and detailing cut lists for structural steel
- Information retrieval from other design professional drawings to ensure coordination, accuracy and completion
- Ability to interpret specifications related to construction industry
- Performing quality checks on drawings to identify and correct errors
- Supporting the engineering and consulting team in meeting project deadlines and deliverables

Requirements

- A college diploma in Civil Engineering or Architectural Technology is required
- Minimum two year relatable experience
- Proficiency in drafting construction drawings and shop drawings with Revit/AutoCAD is essential
- Ability to read and understand specifications, architectural and structural drawings
- A valid driver's licence
- Knowledge with construction practices
- Familiarity with RISA Modeling/Advanced Steel software would be considered an asset

Qualifications

- Excellent communication and teamwork skills
- Strong attention to detail and accuracy
- Ability to work in a fast-paced environment and manage multiple tasks effectively
- Excellent interpersonal skills with the ability to work in a cooperative environment

Benefits

- Competitive salary based on experience
- Health Benefit Plan (HSA)
- Two week vacation time plus additional week holiday closure
- Growth opportunities within the company

Interested in a career with Tria Consulting Ltd.?

To Apply: Please send a resume and cover letter by email to info@triaconsulting.ca